The copies rec'd. I shall probably keep all but one of those sent on approval—viz, 1795, not fine enough; not as good as mine. I have been delayed in getting my copies, which were sent away when I went on my vacation, & have not arranged them all, nor taken down packages; hence could not compare. Will send reply in a day or two

Friend Chapman,

I retain three pieces, returning the others — the Three cence is fine, but I will not take it. I have as fine (or better) 1828 this variety — I wanted the wider date, mine being only 'good'. My 'silly head' is much superior to this.

In Romans I lack Brutus, Drusus Sr, Diadumenianus, Balbinus, Macrianus, Maximinus Daza, Romulus, Theodosius II, & a few subsequent ones. I should like to get hold of an English 1/16 farthing. I once ordered it at auction, but it was lost out. What can it be obtained for separately?

Messrs H.H.K. Chapman,

On my return from New York a couple of days ago, I found the package of coins, and have just overlooked them, and made my selection. Of those not chosen, some were not better than those I possess, or the type not so different as to indicate me to purchase. Permit me to thank you for your kindness in sending them, and also for your cautious judgment in purchasing for me at the sale. I knew I could rely upon you. I want only genuine and good or fine coins. I return to-day by express to-day.

Dear Sir & friends, I return today two of coins rec'd. I don't care to put so much money in the 3 pcs. at present.
Shall wait opportunities for rarities, or go without. I should prefer to distribute the money over more surface - i.e. get more coins. Don't pay too high for Theodore. I don't want to pay more than $3.50. I am still of the opinion, & the sales of Auction Cab. confirms it, that I can usually do better at auction than to purchase at private sales. I shall watch my chances, & some time my turn will come. My friend Rev.
A. Dean has cut the numismatic pen after all - so he writes; wanted only to know when I might, in order that he might run in and inspect stock for curiosity sake. So it will be you can send him catalogues, unless you prefer. You may send me a proof set of '81 whenever you can procure it.
Are they issued yet?
